

The Snowball Shepherd

(Le Berger des boules de neige)

It is snowing outside: Martin is very excited and rushes out of the house. Playing with snowballs, he notices them following him and decides to look after them, just like a shepherd looks after his flock. As Winter draws to an end, the snowballs start to melt and flowers begin to blossom: Martin welcomes Spring and becomes a flower shepherd!

Laura Romero's first picture book helps the little ones deal with change through the story of the snowball shepherd who has to let go of his "flock" by winter's end to take care of beautiful flowers instead.

- Imagination as a tool to better accept the world around us
- A story that teaches adaptation to change and resilience
- Realistic illustrations with flat tints of gouache and pleasant color contrasts

In the Press

"A beautiful hymn to winter, to the seasons, to the passage of time; suitable for children 3 years and up [...] A beautiful story about winter; and the opportunity to discover this Lebanese publisher who offers really original books!" — BBB's Mum Blog

Laura ROMERO | Author & Illustrator

A Fine Arts graduate, Laura Romero worked as an artist and creator for years, before graduating in 2014 in Preschool Education with the purpose of combining art and education. It was then that she began to express herself through children's illustration in an exponential way. She currently has her own studio in Madrid and works as an illustrator for international publishers.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR

AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR • Laura Romero
AGE • 3+ yrs
PRICE • 14.00 €
FORMAT • 23 cm x 20 cm / Hardcover
N° OF PAGES • 32 pages
YEAR OF PUBLICATION • 2018
ISBN • 978-614-443-089-7
WORKING ENGLISH TRANSLATION AVAILABLE
FINAL SPANISH TEXT AVAILABLE
WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE