

Egyptian Short Stories

Collection: Antique Short Stories

978-9953-31-254-5

Historical fiction – 13 years & up – 9 €

132 pages – Soft cover

15 cm x 21 cm

2016

📖 Six well-crafted historical short stories

📖 Technical vocabulary illustrated with explanatory drawings

📖 A modern and appealing layout

"The author skillfully unrolls the papyrus of his stories, moving from a crazy love story to that of a curse, from the fate of a tomb robber to the execution of a vengeance." – Historia Magazine, September 17, 2015

WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

"This is my share of Egypt... And Egypt is more beautiful than anything." This is how one of the main characters expresses his awe of Egypt's glory. His amazement is understandable...

A land of abundance, wisdom and mystery, the Egypt of the Pharaohs still fascinates today. Its obsession with death is mingled with its joy of living; its harsh life, with the pleasures of the present moment. Over more than three thousand years of history, it has remained almost the same.

Get ready to relive in the times of the Pharaohs!

Marwan EL-AHDAB Author

Art history and the Russian language, finance and journalism, Marwan has visited many worlds before devoting himself to children's literature. Like his eclectic personality, his stories are fit for all ages and range from documentary series to fiction.

LE GALL & CHASSAGNARD Illustrators

Believing that Graphic Design should be put at the service of Meaning, Loïc Le Gall has hundreds of art books to his credit, and Clément Chassagnard collaborates with many publishing houses.

