

Rome, the City of the Seven Hills, the capital of the world... these attributes describe the Empire that reigned over a good part of Europe, North Africa and West Asia. But do you know what Romans were like? How they lived? What they thought about? Are you familiar with their occupations, their beliefs, their activities?

This collection of seven short stories — seven stories for seven hills — brings original answers to your questions: its protagonists are exact replicas of the Romans they're modeled after, and all the details of their lives are true.

Get ready to relive the great Roman adventure!

Marwan EL-AHDAB Author

Art history and the Russian language, finance and journalism, Marwan has visited many worlds before devoting himself to children's literature. Like his eclectic personality, his stories are fit for all ages and range from documentary series to fiction.

LE GALL & CHASSAGNARD Illustrators

Believing that Graphic Design should be put at the service of Meaning, Loïc Le Gall has hundreds of art books to his credit, and Clément Chassagnard collaborates with many publishing houses.

Roman Short Stories

Collection: Antique Short Stories

978-9953-31-255-2

Historical fiction – 13 years & up – 9 €

144 pages – Soft cover

15 cm x 21 cm

2013

📖 Seven well-crafted historical short stories

📖 Technical vocabulary illustrated with explanatory drawings

📖 A modern and appealing layout

"From the misadventures of a freedman to the last fight of a gladiator, these portions of lives, well written and documented, are captivating." — Historia Magazine, September 21st, 2014

This book was on the list of recommended readings by the Ministry of National Education of France in 2016.

WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

